* Have you ever wondered about your own impact on our world? I consider that you have, but how exactly can people affect our world? In this essay I will comment on the ~~given~~ quotation "Be the change that you wish to see in the world" written by Mahatma Gandhi, express my opinion on it and answer the questions.

There is no doubt that ~~everyone~~ ^{every person} can have a huge effect on our planet. Even one person may change the development of the world. For instance, Adolf Hitler wanted numerous countries to be parts of Germany, and due to his organised actions, The Second World War started that caused millions of deaths and affected world's economics and culture. Therefore, this cruel person's ~~significantly~~ wishes came true in some way, but not at all.

Definitely, the commitment of people to release their ideas can be significant for the whole world. It can be explained by the fact that For instance, Alexander Pushkin, since his childhood, had ~~been creating~~ ^{wanted} to be a ~~poet~~ ^{famous}. He was succeeded at making his wish come true. His books ~~became~~ ^{were} because popular among a lot of people that ~~are~~ ^{were} encouraged by his works. So, ~~this~~ ^{then} ~~this person's~~ ^{these} ideas can be significant for the whole world.

In conclusion, I am convinced that everyone is in charge of our planet. One can do various things that are able to affect greatly affect most people's lives.
